

Sunday school 29 August (Pentecost 14)

Listen:

- To James 1:17-27

Remember:

- The verse, “...Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, ²⁰ because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires.”

What strategies help you remember?

Pick one strategy and use it to try to remember the verse.

Share:

- What makes you angry? What helps you most when you are angry?
- A time of drawing. Place a mirror near your drawing space and sketch your face/s. As you draw, talk about James' advice to remember God's Word. Can you think of occasions when it might be more important to listen than to speak?

Make:

- A paper snail like the one from Ministry 2 Kids (<https://ministry2kidz.com/2017/01/31/paper-snail-craft/>)

Pray:

Dear God,

Thank you for teaching us. Please help us to listen and to use our words and actions in ways that serve you.

Amen.
